NOTE

The church of St James, Whitehaven, was built in 1752-1753, and the building was consecrated by the Bishop of Carlisle on the Feast of St James, Apostle and Martyr, 25 July 1753.

At the moment that these lines are written the churchyard is in process of being taken over by the Borough of Whitehaven to be used as a Garden of Rest or open space, and all the grave-stones are being moved. It seemed appropriate to transcribe and print the inscriptions on these stones now, and to include also the inscriptions in the church. A small portion of the churchyard which was walled off, was used for the burial of cholera victims, but the ground was not consecrated.

The Parish Register section of the Society is shortly to publish my transcript of the baptisms in St James' Church from 1753-1837.
